DAY 1 - Governmental Accounting, Ethics & Audit Prep

Day one of the conference will focus on all the things related to governmental preparers. We'll kick off the day with an update on what's going on at the GASB with a focus on the standards effective this year as well as exposure drafts and projects. We'll then switch to a Yellow Book ethics update with a focus on independence. Government budgets have been in the news so we'll talk about best practices in sustainability and budgeting. We'll close with best practices in ACFR prep and how to prepare for an audit.

DAY 2 - Governmental Auditing and Internal Control Update

Day two of the conference will focus on all the things related to governmental auditing. We'll start with a review of the 2024 Yellow Book and related changes. We'll also review the AICPA quality management standards. Then we'll tackle the changes to the Uniform Guidance issued in 2024 impacting audits this year and next! Peer reviewers continue to find issues with documentation of internal controls and internal control tests so we'll review the differences between ICFR and ICOC and related documentation and testing. After lunch we'll look at recent government fraud schemes including an update from the 2024 ACFE Report to the Nation. We'll close the day with common deficiencies found in New Mexico Single Audits and how to fix them!

Day 3 - New Mexico Specific Day

Day three of the conference will consist of an in-depth overview of various topics, to include New Mexico Updates, Ethics, AI/IT and much more. On this day, attendees have the opportunity to learn from some of New Mexico's finest professionals.
